APOSTOLIC WORK — DOWN & CONNOR —

Apostolic Work was founded by Agnes McCauley in 1923 in Down & Connor and has been led by committed lay people who have supported Irish Missionaries and others in their work overseas.

Our fundraising and prayerful support over the years has made substantial differences to a multitude of projects worldwide. Projects to date have supported education, health, nutrition, and many community enterprises. We have 56 branches throughout Down and Connor.

There will be a special church door collection this weekend
16th/17th November.
Your support would be very much appreciated.

Finding Hope

11am - 3.30pm, 30 November

Begin Advent by taking time out to relax, to think and pray, to be with God. Slow down. Be surprised by God with us in these uncertain times. Find hope.

A day of song, prayer, scripture and story, peace and quiet, led by Breige O'Hare. Bring your own lunch. Tea/coffee provided. Ring Clonard reception 02890445950 to book.

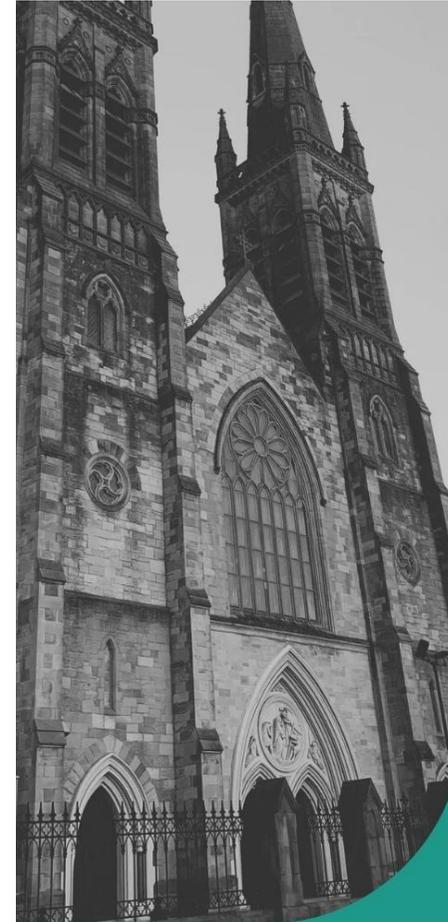

"Caring to the End: Why Euthanasia Is Not An Answer to Suffering."

Fauré's Requiem

OP. 48

Sung by
the Cathedral Choirs, with special guest
Fr Eugene O'Hagan

Friday 22nd November 7PM St Peter's Cathedral, Belfast

“ Our Irish heritage has blessed us with a profound understanding that death is a natural part of life's journey. We speak of it openly, sharing both laughter and tears as we honour the memories of those who have gone before us.

Our faith teaches us that death is not an ending but a transition - not a passing away, but a passing on to God and eternal life.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful."
Pastoral letter from Bishop Alan McGuckian, SJ
Diocese of Down and Connor

“ Every human life possesses infinite dignity - a dignity that remains constant regardless of circumstance or condition.

We all deserve care at every stage of life, and those who are dying have the right to holistic accompaniment that honours their dignity.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful."
Pastoral letter from Bishop Alan McGuckian, SJ
Diocese of Down and Connor
